TO SOLVE PROBLEM OF LABOR UNREST

Condition Threatens to Hamper War Production

Government Must Evolve Some Comprehensive System of Dealing With This Difficult Situation.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The government is working to develop some comprehensive system of dealing with the labor unrest which threatens to hamper war production. It is concerned over the pronounced upward movement of wages, disproportionate for various industries, and the difficulty of stabilizing conditions without doing injustice to workers or employers. Nearly all production now is directly or indirectly necessary for the prosecution of the war and the output of war materials is curtailed by strikes, extraordinary movement of workmen from one industry to another or from plant to plant, and other unsettled conditions. On the recommendations of the commission headed by Secretary Wilson of the department of labor, which left today for the west will largely depend the government's eventual policy. Meanwhile it is understood the government's course will be:

To extend the number of industries having war contracts, the present system of wage adjustment boards which have been created for cantonment construction, shipbuilding, longshoremen's work, and army and navy clothing production.

To increase the number of war department contracts containing clauses providing that in case of suspension of work by strikes the secretary of war shall settle the disputes.

To enforce agreements with industries for whose products standard prices are fixed, not to reduce wages.

To encourage employers to form associations by industry groups to deal collectively with labor demands; and

Press informally for adjustment of disagreements before they reach the strike stage, under the implied pressure of the government's war power to commandeer and operate plants.

Fail to Prevent Walk-Outs

These practices already are in effect on a small scale having been developed gradually to deal with specific labor problems as they arose. They have failed to prevent many walkouts, however, despite the government's recognition in most cases of the right of labor's demands for higher pay to meet the increased cost of living.

The defense council's labor committee headed by Samuel Gompers, will co-operate in any movement to stabilize labor conditions, but cannot be expected, officials say, to prevent strikes or force mediation except by its general advocacy of industrial peace as a war policy.

The shipping board is considering an attempt to organize shipbuilders under an agreement not to lure workmen from one plant to another, and there has been considerable discussion among officials of other departments of a nation-wide movement to stabilize labor conditions in that way.

Employers' interests represented by the national industrial conference board are urging the government to call a conference of labor leaders including those not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, to ratify an agreement which includes a provision against changing conditions of opinion or closed shops during the war. Since this would virtually suspend the labor organization movement it is opposed by labor leaders.

This murder precipitated the massacre of negroes on July 2.

PROOF AGAINST SPY WILL BE FORWARDED

Evidence Secured in This Country Will Be Used Against German Under Arrest in Paris.

New York, Oct. 3.—Proof that German money was furnished in this country by Count Von Bernstorff to Bolo Pasha, under arrest in Paris as a spy, will be forwarded tomorrow to the French government it was announced here tonight by Merton E. Lewis, state attorney general.

The attorney general, who investigated Bolo Pasha's activities here at the request of Ambassador Jusserand said that it was a preliminary report submitted by him to the ambassador at Washington last week which resulted in the arrest of Bolo Pasha in Paris.

"The conclusions will be substantiated by a mass of documentary evidence," the attorney general's statement said, "including photographic reproductions of the checks, bank records and other proofs of the disposition of the German money furnished Bolo Pasha in this country by ex-Ambassador Bernstorff.

CANADIANS REPULSE GERMAN ATTACK

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS in France, Oct. 3.—The enemy early this morning attempted to raid our lines in the Avion sector, but was discovered before he got to close quarters, and driven off, after sustaining a number of casualties. The infantry activity is generally less than normal but the sound of guns never ceases. The German are attempting more by destructive shots on our battery positions than they did earlier in the season but even in this respect they are still far behind the British and Canadian gunners.

There has been marked increase in the use of long range, high velocity guns by the Germans. The results certainly do not justify the free use of these guns. The enemy also has increased the proportion of gas shells and has sent us many varities of gas. This may indicate that the chemicals from which the poison gas is made are available in greater quantities than those required for high explosives.

WILL OPEN THIRD OFFICERS' CAMPS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—A third series of officers training camps to be opened January 5th will run until April 5, the war department announced today, primarily for the education of enlisted men of the regular army, National Guard and National Army for commissions.

In addition, however, 2,490 graduates or undergraduates from ninety-three specified schools and colleges will be admitted.

AGREEMENT REACHED

Washington, Oct. 3.—An agreement on wage scales virtually was reached today between the navy department and the presidents of the International Trade Unions, representing navy yard employes. While figures have not been finally decided, it was announced officially that the conference had reached a point where the trade union men expected to sign up tomorrow for the ensuing year.

SUBMARINES NOT DEFINITELY BEATEN

Naval Authorities Deprecate Reports of Too Great Progress Against U-Boats.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Navy officials deprecated today publication of reports that go too far in either direction as to the progress of the campaign against German submarines. There is no reasonable ground, they said, for feeling that the submarines have been definitely beaten because the announced losses have decreased recently while on the other hand there is nothing in the present situation that warrants apprehension on the part of the allies.

The drain on allied shipping resources still is heavy, but with steadily increasing numbers of fighting craft going into the conflict against the U-boats and with the accelerated merchant craft building programs of Great Britain and the United States showing results, American officials have complete confidence in ultimate victory over the undersea craft.

The policy of convoying merchant craft now has been adopted by all powers.

Under the convoy plan the U-boat commander is certain of a fight if he comes to the surface and so dares not pursue a convoyed flotilla except when submerged. Then his speed is too low to allow him to conduct a successful pursuit.

BOAT BUILDERS MAKE RAPID PROGRESS

Navy Department Assured of Earlier Delivery of Ships Than Was Contemplated.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Such remarkable progress has been made in the quick building of the immense flotilla of American destroyers to cope with the submarine campaign, that the navy department now is assured of much quicker delivery of the ships than was contemplated. Progress, it was said, is such that the American navy will lead the world with its destroyers within eighteen months.

It is certain that all destroyers now building will be delivered ready for duty early next year. Many of them had not been expected until the winter of 1918. Approximately 10 months has been saved.

The full success of the project, however, depends on the powers granted to the president in the bill now pending. It is now in conference. Its progress is being watched anxiously as tentative contracts are subject to change if the bill is altered.

All new destroyers show radical changes from any of these craft now afloat. The great majority will be thirty-five knot vessels of improved sea-keeping qualities. The first of the new type has been tried out with results that amazed officers.

The rate of warship production has been increased to such a point that a greater amount of fighting tonnage is being produced in a given time than has ever been achieved before by any power.

GIVE FIGURES ON SUBMARINES' TOLL

Total Losses Aggregate About 6'0,000 Tons Sunk For Monthly For Seven Months.

London, Oct. 3.—The total of losses to world's shipping since Germany's ruthless U-boat war went into effect aggregate about two thirds of those claimed by the Germans in a statement issued Sept. 1. At that time the Germans alleged that an average of 900,000 tons had been sunk monthly for seven months.

The actual totals of tonnage sunk compiled here show that not even during the most successful month for the U-boats—April—have the figures reached any such proportion, while the August losses dropped to almost half the April figure.

The foregoing statement of the British admiralty again lowers the aggregate of merchantmen sunk by mines or submarines during any week since Germany began her intensified submarine campaign. As against fifteen vessels sunk the previous week, which was the low record since February, only thirteen merchantmen are shown to have been sent to the bottom last week.

PLAYER MUST BE MILITARY MAN

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 3.—Unless a man, physically fit, has identified himself with some branch of the military service, he need not expect to play football at Yale this year, according to an announcement made today by T. A. D. Jones, football coach. The announcement says:

"No man, who is physically fit and is not a member of the reserve officers training corps, or some branch of the miltary service will be permitted to report for football."

ADOPT CONFERENCE REPORT

Washington, Oct. 3.—Within less than three minutes today the senate adopted the conference report on the war urgent deficiency appropriation bill carrying $7,757,434,410 in cash and authorized contracts. Tomorrow the house is expected to adopt it and send it to President Wilson.

It emerged this afternoon from conference between the two houses in which items involving over $750,000,000 had been in dispute and went thru the senate in record-breaking time without the formality of a roll call.

M'ADOO REVIEWS EFFECT OF U-BOAT CAMPAIGN

Secretary Tells of German's Actions and How They Have Hampered U. S. Industry.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 3.—Speaking before the bankers of Wisconsin this afternoon Secretary McAdoo reviewed the effect of Germany's submarine campaign and how it has hampered American industry.

"On the material side, the disaster which would have followed submission to the war zone order of Germany is most striking," declared Secretary McAdoo. "The kaiser's order forbade our ships from carrying our people and our commerce to Great Britain, France and Italy. Our prosperity and our welfare as a people are inseperately connected with our right of free and unmolested intercourse with those nations.

"Certain imports are essential to our life and existence. We must have them and we cannot submit to any tyrant who forbids us to sail on the high seas in the peaceful pursuit of our legitimate interests and in the unmolested enjoyment of the rights we won by the blood and courage of our ancestors. If we had yielded to this insolent order, signed by the kaiser in Berlin, he would have destroyed by one stroke of his pen more than $3,400,000,000 of our commerce and American vessels and American citizens would have been excluded from all intercourse with Great Britain, France and Italy. By one stroke of the kaiser's pen he would have accomplished more destruction on our farms, in our factories, in our mines than we could achieve with all the armies and navies of the German empire. It was a monstrous edict and it would be a monstrous thing for America to submit to it.

BREWERS HOLD WAR CONVENTION

Delegates Urged to Unite in National Fight for Existence.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 3.—Charging that "professional prohibitionists" are "deliberately trying to mislead the people by studied falsifications and publication of malicious falsehoods about the beer business by disregarding the attitude of the press, by taking advantage of war conditions, the food situation, of the absence of a million enlisted men, industrial emergencies, army camps or any other pretext for pressing prohibition regardless of its consequences," President Gustavus Pabst, of Milwaukee, speaking before the opening business session of the war convention of the United States Brewers' Association here today urged delegates to set aside all differences and local issues to unite in the national fight for existence.

Mr. Pabst pointed out that the association had offered its co-operation to all departments of the federal government and the "subscription by brewers of millions of dollars for liberty bonds at a time when the very life of the brewing industry was being threatened with destruction," was substantial proof of the attitude of the industry toward the government and its war aims.

The president called upon brewers thruout the nation to leave no stone unturned to secure the rigid enforcement of all prohibition and regulatory laws regarding the shipment and sale of beer.

Mr. Pabst observed that there are "many indications that the people are getting tired of professional prohibition leaders" and that the "reaction is shown by the demand for constructive measures that shall lead to permanent improvement."

SHOULD GIVE THEM BOMB FOR BOMB

TORONTO, Oct. 3."The only way to deal effectively with the German raids in England is to do as the French are doing—give them bomb for bomb," said Lord Northcliffe, head of the British war mission to the United States, who arrived in Toronto. "I have always advocated reprisals," he added. "Paris is only 125 miles away from Germany and do you ever head of raids upon Paris? The French gave them bomb for bomb. That is the remedy anyone would propose who understands Germany."

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Since the middle of last week the German armies in Flanders daily have been trying to wrest from the British territory taken from them in the recent big offensive of Field Marshal Haig.

As on previous days Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria on Wednesday unleashed large numbers of his troops in an effort to recapture terrain on the Ypres sector but the ever watchful gunners of Haig again wrought havoc among the attacking waves and dispersed the Germans with heavy casualties and retained all their positions intact. There still is no indication of the time set by Field Marshal Haig for the renewal of his efforts to press on toward and cut the Ostend-Lille railway, but he is steadily keeping up his pounding of the German trenches with his masses of artillery of all calibers.

Altho the German war office asserts that in Tuesday's fighting along the eastern bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector the Germans captured a comparative long line of French trenches the French official comunication makes no mention of this and asserts merely that no violent artillery fighting and spirited patrol engagements took place.

While British and French airmen continue their bombing operations against Germany's submarine base at Zeebrugge and points of military importance behind the lines the French aviators are keeping up their attack upon German towns and cities in reprisal for the shelling by German aircraft of the open town of Bar Le Duc. More than 15,000 pounds of explosives are reported to have been dropped on numerous German settlements, among them the famous town of Baden, famous as a health resort.

Likewise the Italians are giving the Austrians little respite from aerial incursions, again dropped four tons of projectiles on military objectives at Paola, the great Austrian naval base on the Adriatic and bombed other points of military advantage.

In addition the Italians have repulsed decisively another Austrian attack on the western slopes of Monte San Gabriele, in the Gorizia sector.

RECENT EXFLOITS OF BRITISH AVIATORS

Drops Bombs On German Munition Camp—Many Narrow Escapes.

British Headquarters in France and Belgium, Monday, Oct. 1.—By The Associated Press.—(Delayed)—Among the recent exploits by British aviators there was one well worth recording which was carried out last Wednesday, a day when several notable encounters occurred. An English airman after crossing the lines at an altitude of 2,000 feet saw an enemy airplane and gave chase but was driven back by five German Al-Batrosses. He returned toward the lines and seeing fifteen men on a railway descended and scattered them with a machine gun. Nearby he dropped a bomb on a munition dump surrounded by soldiers and the dump blew up.

Once more he engaged the same enemy airplane but was again driven off by a large number of German fliers. He dived to escape and passed into a heavy artillery barrage. A shell went thru the mechanism cutting his elevator controls and one side of his rudder control but he managed to land just behind the British barbed wire.

Two soldiers ran to his assistance. A German shell burst behind them killing one of the soldiers and wounding the other. The aviator was trying to assist the wounded man when the airman himself was wounded.

On the same day one British aviator dispersed 500 German troops with his machine gun.

REJECT PROPOSAL TO EXAMINE ALL REGISTERED

Men Not Yet Called Will Not Be Examined Soon

House and Senate Conferees Kill Proposal to Test for Military Service all Registered Men by Eliminating Appropriation from War Bill.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The proposal to examine for military service all men registered for the army draft and not yet called was killed for the present, at least, today when the house and senate conferees eliminated an appropriation for the purpose from the war deficiency bill, the conference report on which was promptly accepted by the senate.

The plan was submitted by the provost marshal general's office in order that every registered man might know whether he was liable for service and if so the actual order of his liability. The war department asked for the opinion of the governors of the states and only two signified disapproval.

Secretary Baker said recently that the department had reached no decision in the matter and would not until congress acted upon the proposition to make appropriations to defray expenses.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY OF VON HINDENBURG

Field Marshal Hindenburg Presented With Marble Bust of "All Highest War Lord."

Amsterdam, Oct. 3.—The celebration of the birthday of Field-Marshal von Hindenburg at German main headquarters yesterday began with a visit from Emperor William who presented the field-marshal with a marble bust of the "all highest war lord." The route from Hindenburg's house to main headquarters was lined with children who strewed flowers in his path, while airmen dropped flowers and daurel wreaths.

At headquarters the field-marshel was received by General von Ludendorff and the other officers of the general staff. General Ludendorff greeted his chief as "the personification of the glorious development of the Prussian-German fatherland." Hindenburg later reviewed veteran units and other soldiers in front of the headquarters and in speaking to them said:

"It is a special pleasure to me to know myself at one with the German people in their will to victory and their confidence in victory."

The field marshal praised the army and those who remained at home. He called for cheers for the emperor, who invited to dinner all who had called to offer birthday congratulations. In a speech the emperor praised the field-marshal as "the hero of the German people to whom it is granted to accomplish deeds of world and historical greatness."

The emperor then thanked Field Marshal Von Hindenburg in the name of the army and the people and continued:

"Future centuries will weave legends around the beloved and honored personality of the field-marshal. May God preserve him for further deeds until the victorious end of the war, out of which a strong, healthy and respected Germany will arise."

VESSELS COLLIDE DURING STORM

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3—An American detroyer in British waters recently was in collision with a British naval vessel which after taking off the American crew, towed the disabled destroyer safely to port. In announcing the collision today the navy department said no one was injured aboard the American destroyer and that the vessel has since been repaired and restored to active duty.

An official inquiry developed that the collision was unavoidable, the vessels having come together during a heavy rainstorm. No blame was placed on either the American or the British vessel.

The urgency of Pershing's promotion was explained by the secretary who declared that the head of the over-seas troops should be given a grade commensuraate with the importance of his position.

THE COAL PRICE ORDER.

Dr. Garfield's order fixing the margin for retail coal dealers' profits will probably result for the benefit of the consumer but thus far dealers are unable to understand the application of the somewhat complicated system outlined in the order. No doubt a fuller explanation will be forthcoming when the various state coal administrators and local coal committees are appointed. Some speedy action on the part of the coal administrator is certainly necessary for at present mine operators are making very light shipments, and the time of year is such that a winter shortage is inevitable unless some means of speeding up production and shipments can be found.

THE REASON FOR A FARM ADVISOR.

As a war measure the increased production of farm products is of vital importance. The war will be won by men and munitions, money and provisions and it is the patriotic duty of every land owner and farmer to increase his production to the limit in order to feed our fighting men and people and the armies and people of our allies. Not only will our farmers support their government in increasing their production, but they will prosper in doing so. For these reasons there is an awakened interest in better agriculture and many who heretofore were lukewarm in the matter of employing a county advisor now feel that it is their patriotic duty to co-operate in this matter and employ an advisor to help increase the productivity of our farms.

BOOSTING FOR MAYOR MITCHEL.

The situation in the New York mayoralty contest indicates in what a marked way party lines are smashed these days. Mayor Mitchel, democrat, was defeated in the recent primary and has announced he will run as a fusion candidate on the issue of "straight Americanism." Mayor Mitchel has the open support of Col. Roosevelt, Charles E. Hughes, Henry Morgenthau, Oscar Straus, William H. Taft, Charles Edward Russell and many other men of like prominence. Some facts about the principles of other candidates bring Mayor Mitchel's "straight Americanism" strongly into the limelight. With that as his platform and with a splendid record behind him in office, he should be re-elected by the greatest majority ever given a New York mayor. That he must be a rousing patriot of the most pronounced type is clear from this tribute by Colonel Roosevelt, who said: "He is the best mayor we ever had. But I ask you to stand by him because he stands in this city foremost, the most fearless, the most uncompromising embodiment of the American spirit."

THE REFORM WAVE.

This from a current magazine sheds a clear light on German reform movements: "If the war were safely over and the German people felt they could afford to take up the fight for political reform, it is likely that democracy would make itself heard. The emperor has already announced that he will favor the principle of equal suffrage in Prussia after the war, and it has been further understood that this principle is to apply to the next election of members of the Landtag, the lower house of the Prussian parliament. The Reichstag is on system of equal suffrage, but there is great inequality in the distribution of seats. The Reichstag has financial power but does not shape the policies which the German people are asked to support with their money. There is a real movement for giving the Reichstag some responsibility for the government. The new chancellor is consulting the Reichstag committees with some show of deference.

"Sooner or later it is likely enough that Germany may become 'democratized.' But the present movement does not seem to be advancing rapidly in the face of war conditions. Military autocracy in war time has a greater practical efficiency than social democracy, or what is known as parliamentary responsibility. Apparently this German political reform is not making sensational strides. Can pretended unity be kept up?"

Serenity.

I sit and sizzle in my grease, when summer days are blazing, and yet my soul is filled with peace, tranquillity amazing. I sit and shiver when the snows are drifting on the prairie; the wintry tempset never blows that makes my heart less merry. Not heat or cold or rain or snow should make us sad or joyous; we should not let a tinhorn woe to disturb us or annoy us. The mind that dwells on cheap john things, that's aye with trifles freighted, one minute soars on shining wings, triumphant and elated; the next it's shaken off all its mirth, it's like a raven croakin; it drags itself along the earth, its pinions crushed and broken. At night I sit and watch the stars, earth's little things forgetting, keep tab on Jupiter and Mars, and watch the dog star setting. I count the mountains of the moon, through cloudland's shreds and tatters, and do not care a picayune for any worldly matters. Serene I sit and watch the mob go past me, crowding, straining, and hear a laugh, a sigh, a sob ,a curse and much complaining. They fuss and fret and chafe and grieve, and try to bilk the neighbor; and nothing that they may achieve is worth the sweat and labor.

CLEARING HOUSE PLANS TO AID ADVISOR PROJECT

Meeting of Bankers, Grain and Creamery Men Will Be Held Friday Morning — Sidney Smith Coming to Explain Government's Proposition.

At a meeting of the Jacksonville Clearing House Association held Wednesday morning it was decided to invite representatives of the banks and elevators of the county to be present at a meeting to be held next Friday morning at the Chamber of Commerce at ten o'clock to hear Mr. Sidney B. Smith, a representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, discuss the matter of securing a county agricultural advisor. Every bank, elevator and creamery in the county is invited to have a representative present at this meeting.

Mr Smith will address the meeting at the Chamber of Commerce and immediately after will be taken to Scott County by L. T. Potter and they will spend the day there interviewing farmers. It is not unlikely that if enough interest is shown by the Scott county people, they will be given an opportunity to join with the Morgan County farmers in securing an advisor, if they so desire.

Mr. Smith will address a meeting to be held at the Court House in this city on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Every land owner and farmer interested in supporting our country by increasing the production of farm crops in this community is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

After Mr. Smith's address on Saturday afternoon, there will be a meeting of the Advisory Council of the Morgan County Farmers Club at the Court House. Mr. Smith will be present at this meeting and plans will be perfected for a campaign for subscriptions to employ a county advisor. Pres. Chas. S. Black of the farmers club urges every member of the Advisory Council to attend both of the afternoon meetings on Saturday.

Those who have been interested in this matter find there is an increasing sentiment favorable to the establishment of a county agricultural bureau. For several years past a goodly number of our progressive farmers have been ready to contribute toward the expense of an advisor, but there were not enough of them to finance the matter, and financial aid from the United States and State was not so available as now. Now both the Federal and State governments will help meet the expense of an advisor as soon as sufficient interest is shown in the county.

Helping to Win the War

Article 1—Advice to Americans Six years of Age and Under.

By George Ade

Can a mere child be of service to his or her country while we are trying to make the Kaiser behave?

Undoubtedly.

How?

By observing the conduct of weak-kneed, hysterical and complaining adults and then being just as different from them as possible.

The war is neither a joke nor a protracted funeral.

You will notice that some of the older people refuse to accept it as a fact, while others move about in a blue funk, exclaiming, between sobs, that the U. S. A. is going to the bow-wows.

Let the very young children set their elders a good example by remaining calm but determined.

If you pick up the morning paper and read that the U-boats bagged 17 ships instead of the customary 15, and the Canadians captured only one line of trenches instead of two, do not shake your head and declare that the Germans never can be licked.

Set a good example to your fathers and mothers and uncles and aunts by renewing your faith daily, in spite of the occasional set-back.

Quote to them the words of Abraham Lincoln: "Let us have faith that right makes might and in that faith let us, to the end, dare to do our duty."

You might remind your grown-up relatives that all during the Civil War the northern states harbored a good many well-meaning people who went about moaning that the Union never could be preserved and we had better accept peace at any price.

These invertebrates (an invertebrate, children, is a creature with a string of macaroni where the backbone should be)—these spineless ones were willing to let certain states secede. The blacks were to remain in slavery. Our flag was to be lowered. Anything to avoid a fight to a finish.

Even after the battle of Gettysburg, when the fortunes of war began to favor the North, just as they are now favoring the Allies, every community had to put up with a few of the whiners and fault-finders who belittled each victory and magnified each reverse.

Your grandfather can tell you about these peace-lovers who helped to prolong the war by failing to give united and loyal support to the soldiers at the front. If it should happen that grandfather was one of these "peace at any price" advocates, doubtless he will change the subject and talk about something else.

Even if you are less than six years of age, surely you can understand that the issues involved in this dreadful war must be settled and settled right before the world may hope for abiding peace.

Therefore, if anyone asks you what you think about the war, reply as follows:

"President Wilson was right when he said that the world must be made safe for democracy. The American people have no desire to destroy Germany or prevent it from regaining commercial importance. They want Germany to restore the stolen property and go home in a chastened mood. They want to jam the knowledge into every close-cropped Prussian head that just because a man owns a high-priced automatic gun and has a lot of amunition and a college education he has no right to go out and shoot up his neighbors. The American people are hoping to make it clear that it is highly improper to form a partnership with God for purposes of murder, and then treat God as a silent partner. As to the final outcome, the battle of the Marne was the beginning of the end. For two hundred years all the big events of history have marked an irresistible advance toward the establishment of democracy. When the Germans failed in their mad rush of 1914, it meant that an all-wise Providence and the laws of evolution were not to be thwarted by a military despot with a bristling mustache. Germany cannot win and therefore Germany must lose. The end of bloodshed and sacrifice and widespread terror will come as soon as the United States of America begins to strike aggressive blows. The more men we send to the front, the fewer we will lose. Our greatest enemy at present is Indecision. Our strongest ally is Speed. Our most needful watchword is Faith. We are going to end the war and then sit at the council table to repress greed and curb injustice."

Of course, the foregoing will sound rather hifalutin' to come from a six-year-old child but it will be the truth and the truth is needed in large doses at present, especially by people more than six years of age.

That will be all for today, children. You may run along and play.

Ten women of national prominence, who represented nation-wide activities, were made members of this committee: Mrs. Antoinette Funk, Miss Mary Synon, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. George Bass, Mrs. F. L. Higginson, Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip, Mrs. J. O. Milles, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, Mrs. Gulliford Dudley and Mrs. George Thatcher Guernsey. Mrs. William McAdoo was made chairman of the committee.

The Woman's Liberty Loan Committee, in developing the organization, appointed a chairman of each state to have general charge of the organization in her state and to be made a member of the Executive Committee of the State Division of the Council of National Defense, and also appointed a Federal Reserve Director for each of the twelve Federal Reserve Districts, and requested the Federal Reserve Banking Districts to make her a member of the committee during the liberty loan campaign, she to act as the intermediary between the financial interests and the activities of the various women's organizations, explaining and interpreting each to the other and assisting both. Miss Grace Dixon of Chicago is Director of the Seventh Federal Reserve District, in which we live, and Mrs. Howard T. Willson of Virden is state chairman of Illinois.

An Organized Effort

Organizations are being perfected to do effective work. Each state, city, district and village is being organized in such a way that every woman in the United States will be reached, for the Committee feels that if the women of the household are interested the whole family will become imbued with a spirit of being partners with Uncle Sam.

A conference of the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee is being held in the Pan-American Building Thursday and Friday, September 27 and 28, attended by women from all parts of the nation. The program includes a luncheon to meet the ladies of the cabinet and the Federal Reserve Board and the members of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense, a morning business session, and two afternoon sessions at which addresses will be made by prominent financiers and government officials. Secretary McAdoo and Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, National Chairman of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense, will be among the speakers.

Illinois' delegation to the conference includes Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank and Mrs. Antoinette Funk, members of the National Liberty Loan Committee; Mrs. Willis Wood of Chicago, woman director of publicity for the Seventh Federal Reserve District; Miss Grace Dixon, director of women in this district; Mrs. Jacob Baur, chairman of the women's organizations in Chicago; Mrs. Howard T. Willson of Virden, state Chairman; Mrs. Frank G. Allen of Moline and Mrs. Maida Fosdick of Quincy. Mrs. George Bass of Chicago, another member of the National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee has been in Washington for some time, where she has been going over organization matters with Mrs. William G. McAdoo, chairman of the national committee.

Women to Have Important Part

"The women of America are intent upon playing a much more important part in the second campaign than they did in the first," said Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank before leaving. "They performed wonderfully well in the first campaign, but our organization will be much more extensive this time. We feel that the women of the land should support the loan most enthusiastically with their own dollars and urge their husbands, fathers, brothers and sons to do likewise. The organization scheme will reach to the tiniest hamlet and when the opening day arrives the women of the nation will be better prepared to carry on a vigorous compaign than ever before in their history."

DR. MOTT DESCRIBED WAR CONDITIONS ABROAD

Famous Y. M. C. A. Workers Thrilled Chicago Audience at Conference—Wealthy Business Men Giving Time and Money to Work.

Mayor Rodgers, who returned yesterday from a Y. M. C. A. conference in Chicago, said that the meeting was one of the the most inspiring that he ever attended. It was a conference called to consider affairs relating to the morale of the troops in the countries at war. Dr. John R. Mott, secretary of the International Y. M. C. A. board, and Sherwood Eddy, who is also connected with international work, have but recently returned from the front and their report on conditions was of the greatest interest. The Y. M. C. A. organization is now carrying on a tremendous work and Y. M. C. A. army buildings have been erected and are in successful operation in all of the European countries at war except Turkey. All of the foreign governments have given their approval to the work and in fact are helping in a very large way to finance it. The place that the Y. M. C. A. has in American army work is well indicated by the statements of all soldiers who have any occasion to comment upon it.

"Nearly all of the 500 men who attended this conference," said Mayor Rodgers, "with the exception of myself and one other that I know, were men of large financial affairs. Many of them are millionaires and they are devoting themselves unreservedly to this army Y. M. C. A. work, give liberally of their means and practically all of their time. As the war progresses the work of the army Y. M. C. A. will naturally become broader and greater and no doubt it will be necessary at some time to secure financial assistance for the work, altho millions are being constantly contributed by governments and individuals."

The Russian Situation

In his informal talk Dr. Mott answered various questions about Russia, for it is in that country that he has recently been studying conditions. Dr. Mott admits that affairs are in a very chaotic condition there but he is entirely hopeful of the result. He commented upon the fact that possibly no other great country has ever gone thru such a period of development along various lines as has been true in Russia. There is the change from an aristocracy to a democracy and certain religious changes are in progress. Russia now has 7,000,000 men under arms and millions have already died in this war, while several million are held as prisoners. It is related that in many instances Russians have gone into battle absolutely without cartridges for their rifles and knowing full well that death for them was almost certain and that their only chance of surviving was in overpowering their enemies in a hand to hand conflict. It is probable that Dr. Mott will attend the state Y. M. C. A. meeting to be held some time this month and will there make a more formal statement of his European experiences.

WARFIELD TONIGHT

David Warfield and "The Music Master," that inseparable duo, will come to the Grand Opera House tonight. Nearly every theatre-goer is familiar with the famous story of the old music master whose wife and daughter were stolen from him in Leipsic. Mr. Warfield's wonderful success in this quaint and simple little play proves that in the final analysis it is the player who can glorify or debase any written lines.

WILLIAM WHORTEN IS HELD IN JAIL

Wm. Whorten is a bold bad man if the story his wife tells is true. According to Mrs. Whorten, William not only attacked her and gave her a severe beating, but he threatened, she alleges to take her life.

Several days ago Mrs. Whorten swore out two warrants against her husband. One charged assault and battery and one threats to kill. The police have been looking for Whorten for several days but only located him yesterday. He was taken before Justice Dyer and his hearing set for Wednesday, Oct. 10. The court fixed his bond at $200, and being unable to give it was sent to jail. However Whorten declares that money matters are responsible for some of his wife's accusations.

WELL KNOWN YOUNG PEOPLE ARE MARRIED

Miss Sybil Smith of Winchester is Bride of Clarence Fox of White Hall—Supper for Enlisted Men—Scott County News Notes.

Winchester, Ill., Oct. 3.—The marriage of Mr. Clarence Fox of White Hall and Miss Sybil Smith of Winchester occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Smith, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends of the young people were present at the ceremony. The guests were received as they arrived by Miss Smith and Mr. Fox and after all had assembled the couple took their place beneath the arch between the large living room and the dining room. Miss Louise Frost acted as bride's maid and Mr. Myron Ellis of White Hall was best man. Rev. W. R. Johnson, pastor of the Winchester Baptist church performed the ceremony, the ring ceremony being used. The home was decorated with the autumn flowers. After hearty congratulations had been given a two course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Fox is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Smith and has spent her entire life in Winchester. She is a graduate of the Winchester high school and later attended Ward Bellmont, at Memphis, Tenn. She is one of the most popular young ladies in this community and by her charm of manner and disposition has endeared herself to all who know her. She will be greatly missed in Winchester.

Mr. Fox is one of the enterprising young business men of White Hall, being associated in the furniture and undertaking business with his father. He is a musician of ability and has been a member of the White Hall orchestra for a period of years. Mr. Fox, Sr., was the only one of the groom's immediate family present at the ceremony on account of the illness of a younger sister which kept Mrs. Fox at home.

Among those present from a distance were Miss Bear of Ludlow, Ill., Mrs. B. W. Smith of Minier, Ill., grandmother of the bride, Miss Lucille Knox of White Hall, Dr. Chapin and daughter of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Chapin of Jacksonville, Mr. Chapin and daughter Miss Edith of White Hall and Mr. Myron Ellis of White Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Fox left last night for their home in White Hall, which is all furnished and ready for occupancy. They have the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy wedded life.

Injuries Not Serious.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Coultas rejoiced over the receipt of a second message from Camp Park, Arkansas, which arrived at an early hour Wednesday morning, stating that their son Elmo was not seriously injured. Instead of being hurt in an explosion, his injuries were sustained, so far as can now be ascertained, from being thrown from a motorcycle. The second message said that the parents need not come to the camp but Mr. Coultas thought it advisable to go and left Winchester Wednesday afternoon. Further particulars of the accident will be given at a later date.

News Notes.

Misses Lucile Gauer and Lela Chelmel of Morrisonville arrived Tuesday to visit Miss Nelle Ring. Leo Sterburg and Father Cusack arrived Wednesday in Mr. Sterburg's Overland Country Club roadster The party will leave Thursday, accompanied by Miss Ring, for Morrisonville.

The cafeteria supper which was given Wednesday evening for the third Scott county contingent to Camp Zachary Taylor was a decided success. A special table was provided for the soldier boys.

The basement of the Christian church was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and a large number of people enjoyed the supper. The receipts of the supper go to the Red Cross. The Winchester orchestra furnished several splendid selections. Rev. C. W. Casely made a very impressive address to the boys. They leave at an early hour Thursday morning over the Burlington. The squad is in charge of Orderly Harry O'Donnell, with George Wallace, as second in command.

A recent item in the Journal stating that Fred Neat had left Winchester for a hunting trip to Arkansas should have read that Chester Neat had gone.

Mrs. Marsh Green and daughter Miss Helen arrived Tuesday from Huntsville, Ill., to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pieper. They, with Mrs. Pieper left Wednesday afternoon for White Hall to attend the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker.

PARADE FEATURE IS PLANNED FOR MEN WHO ENTRAIN FRIDAY.

Will Mobilize at Armory Hall—Fifty Five More Men Examined Wednesday—Thirteen Make no Exemption Claims—Record of Those Who Did Not Appear This Week.

Examination of men for army service continued at Armory hall Wednesday morning under direction of the Morgan county local board. Fifty five men were examined and of this number forty six were accepted and eight discharged because of physical deficiencies. Four of the sixty men summoned failed to appear and the case of one man was continued for two weeks. Of the forty six men who were accepted thirty three filed claims of dependency and thirteen made no claims. Chairman Weir stated Wednesday that it is the belief of the local board that it will be possible because of examinations held this week to complete Morgan county's quota without being compelled to send any married men to Camp Taylor. This rule may be varied in the case of married men who wish to go or who do not have dependent relatives.

Will Mobilize at Armory.

Arrangements have been completed for the departure of twenty four men to Camp Taylor next Friday. An order will be sent out for these men to mobilze at Armory hall not later than 3 p. m. Friday, Oct. 5. Arrangements will be made at the hall so that the army men will occupy a space set apart for them and their friends and relatives who wish to go to the hall will have other space roped off for them. Dr. A. B. Morey will deliver a brief address to the soldiers. Dr. Morey is especially fitted to give this address because he served as an army chaplain in the War of the Rebellion and has a record of patriotic citizenship extending thru more than fifty years of the ministry.

W. N. Hairgrove, secretary of the local board, will give the charge and instructions on behalf of the board and will then turn over to Orderly Francis Rantz and his assistant Orderly Ernest Alford the railroad tickets and various documents which are to be delivered to the officers at Camp Taylor. The roll will be called at Armory hall and when the men have marched to the Chicago & Alton railway station there will be another roll call. In case any man does not respond immediately alternates will be summoned and the man who has failed to answer roll call will be proclaimed a deserter. Hugh Green, as adjutant for the general board will be in general charge at the railway station until the train leaves.

Band Will Lead Parade.

After the brief exercises at Armory hall the soldiers will fall in line and take up the march to the railway station. A band has been secured to lead the contingent and the procession will include a delegation from Matt Starr post G. A. R. and the local boy scouts organization. The flag bearer will be Deputy Sheriff Howard Wannamaker. The general arrangements for the parade feature are in the hands of John W. Larson and Carl H. Weber, who were appointed by the local board to take care of this work. The baggage of all enlisted men taken to Armory hall will be transported to the railway station thru arrangement made by the local board.

The work of examination at Armory hall Wednesday morning proceeded so rapidly that it was completed by 10:45. As previously indicated, the board has no knowledge at this time of any further call for troops and will not until such a call has been given will there be any further examinations. A RARE MUSICAL TREAT.

Last evening at the Central Christian church a rare musical treat was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. As announced, Mr. and Mrs. McGiff of Newport, Ky., gave a concert of songs and instrumental music which was truly enjoyable. Both have fine voices and Mrs. McGiff is a performer of unusual ability. The great and taking feature of the program consisted of old time plantation songs and melodies, "Suwanee River", "Old Black Joe", "Swing Low Sweet Chariot", "I'm a Rolling", "Good News From Heaven" and others.

Mr. McGiff said it was much desired to have these melodies with music printed and published that they might be preserved for future generations. At the close many who had known Mrs. McGiff as Miss Birdie Boyd of this place passed forward to shake her hand, renew old acquaintance and express appreciation of the fine program.

IN CENTRAL PARK

The park board is now engaged in planting seed in central park and will proceed with efforts to make the place a thing of beauty and pride for the city and they ask the help of all in the work. There are plenty of walks in the park and all are asked to stay on them while they in the park and not cut across, walking on the pulverized ground. All can help in this matter and make the place something in which all will take interest and feel a justifiable pride.

The ladies of Westminster church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. H. Russel, 238 Caldwell street at one o'clock today to sew for the Red Cross.

TWO COUNTY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION IN SESSION

First Day's Session at Waverly Marked By Large Attendance — Great Interest is Being Shown — Rev. A. A. Todd Delivered Annual Sermon—Miss Carrie Spires On Today's Program.

Great interest and a large attendance marked the first day's session of the Morgan and Scott counties Baptist association which opened in the Baptist church at Waverly. A. C. Curry acted as moderator.

The program, with but one exception, was carried out as previously published in the Journal. Three meetings were held and some excellent addresses were made. Fred [illegible] of Ashland, who was on the program to lead the devotionals Wednesday was unable to be present and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. Groce of Ashland.

The sessions opened at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning when the address of Welcome was made by Mayor Fred Deatherage in behalf of the city and words of welcome were extended for the church by the Rev. [illegible] Campbell.

Rev. A. A. Todd pastor of First Baptist church of this city delivered the annual sermon Wednesday evening. Mr. Todd's effort was a splendid one and was heard with close attention by the audience.

The meeting will continue thru today and among those appearing on the program are: Miss Carrie Spires of this city and Mrs. A. A. Curry of Pisgan.

—A moderate priced Baking Powder of greatest merit. Honestly made. Honestly sold. Economical in every way. Every particle is full of actual leavening value. A full money's worth.

—You save time when you use it. Calumet is all baking powder. It begins to raise bakings the instant they are put into the oven. You don't have to keep "peeping" to see if bakings are all right. You know they are. Calumet is sure—never fails. That's economy. And true economy—in cost—in use—in time.

One trial will prove it and show you in results why millions of shrewd, thrifty housewives prefer Calumet to all other brands.

—The unfailing strength of Calumet guarantees perfect results. Not only saves flour—sugar—eggs, etc.—but saves Baking Powder. You use only a teaspoonful—you use two teaspoonfuls or more of most other brands.

Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

White Hall a Division Post Office

In addition to the establishment of the city delivery of mail at White Hall, for which a carriers' examination will be held here next week, the White Hall post office has been made the division post office for Greene county, according to notification received by Postmaster J. E. Wyatt on Monday, and all the postoffices in the county will henceforth receive supplies of stamps and various forms of postage and blanks from the White Hall office, the only exception being the Carrollton post office, which is a second class office and will continue to be supplied thru the regular channels. The fact that as a second class office White Hall ranks above Carrollton gave the division to White Hall, much as Carrollton would like to have had it. It is presumed that the city delivery of mail will be inaugurated at White Hall in November, the first city delivery system to be established in Greene county.

Advices from Soldiers.

Communications from White Hall soldier boys now in the service, a majority of which contain little more than personal greetings and expressing high satisfaction with the service, continue to be received. Aside from Captain Dean Corsa, White Hall is represented in the Engineering Corps by Stanley Gelhuly, Leroy Richert and Chas. E. Pearce. Galhuly is located in Virginia and Corsa continues training in Kansas. Pearce is at Camp Dodge, Iowa, and Richert at Columbia, S. C. Pearce writes from Iowa as follows, he being a member of the second Illinois contingent from Knox county, where he has been in the employ of Armour & Co.:

"Can't give you much of a line on camp life as yet, as I have not been here quite two weeks. However, have been on several hikes, and have drilled each day. Can already execute squads right, squads left, squad right about, column right, etc. Drill is hard work, but it sure makes one eat. The food is very good, and our quarters are quite comfortable. There is quite a bit of competition in drilling and orderliness among the companies. As the first tinge of home-sickness wears off, we are beginning to get into the spirit of things and take an interest. This is one of the busiest places I was ever in. I was lucky in being assigned to the Engineering Corps, one of the best corps in the army. In our company are many college graduates, railroad engineers, salesmen, electricans, etc., and it is a very congenial crowd. I had a civil engineer bunking one one side of me and an accountant on the other, both fine fellows. None of the men growl much, but seem to be in fine spirits. One happy-go-lucky fellow said yesterday 'Gee, but I'm glad I was born'. Our officers are all fine fellows, and are very considerate of the rookies. However, they let us stand in line today "at rest" for two hours in the hot sun. We are getting our uniforms [illegible], and expect to be outfitted in another week. Civilian shoes were never made for long marches, I've found, and civilan clothes don't wear well in the army. In the adjoining barracks we have a piano and recreation room. We have much more time for recreation than I anticipated. Like the majority of the boys, I crave candy and fruit, it never tasted so good before. Saturday afternoon and Sunday we do not drill, and the time is devoted to letter writing, washing clothes or, if we are lucky enough to get leave of absence, go to Des Moines for the day. Letters are simply devoured whole, and would be mighty glad to hear from anybody, and if anybody happens up this way, I surely wish they would look me up. My address is Company B, 313th Engineers, Camp Dodge, Iowa.

Among White Hall representatives in the army are no greater favorites than the Lyons boys, Harry and James. Harry went with the second contingent from Green county, and is located at Camp Taylor, Kentucky. His rollicky and happy vein finds way into his cards and short letters sent back home, and here is the way he looks at the service: "We are sure having a good time here. They treat us fine, feed us well and regularly and what more could we want. Drilling is sure the thing. All the Green county boys are in the same barracks, and you ought to see us washing dishes after meals. We have bought a foot ball, and the boys are enjoying the game. You can tell all the boys who are coming not to worry, as we have plenty to eat and a good place to sleep. We get up at 5:30 in the morning, drill, eat, wash our dishes. The sergeant let me have his uniform Sunday night and took me to town. Our uniforms have been slow in getting to us, and we are not allowed to go out without being uniformed. We are all together in the hospital department, and all are in the best of spirits. Sunday was visitors' day, and you ought to have seen the bunch that came out. We have 26,000 men here now and more are coming. They got me out the other night to meet the Calhoun boys and show them how to make their beds. It was 11:30, but you know I am in the army now. We have to be in bed at 9:30, and of course you know that hour is a little late for me to be up. What we need is something to read."

James Lyons, brother of Harry, is now in France with Company A, Fifth Field Artillery, supply company, and he is reached thru addressing him as above, New York City, care A. F. E. The first advice from him since he went to France came last week to his mother, Mrs. Mame Lyons in which he says that the conditions there are splendid, and he is in high spirits. The letter is very brief, but he expresses a desire to hear from all the friends at home. He will be writing more as soon as he learns what the censors will stand for. His brief letter, which stated that he is in good health, was signed and approved by the captain of his company.

W. J. and H. B. Brady have gone to Mudlavia Springs, Indiana, for the benefit of W. J. Brady's health. The gentleman is afflicted with a stubborn case of rheumatism that refuses to yield to home treatment and the hope is that the treatment at Mudlavia will be of benefit, a desire in which many friends will concur. Mr. H. B. Brady expects to return today.

Chicagoans will have a final opportunity of seeing the New York club in action before the series.

The National League champions will play an exhibition with the Chicago Nationals at Weeghman Park. The New York club will arrive from Philadelphia at 2 p. m.

Manager Rowland of the Chicago club announced tonight that he would extend an invitation to Manager McGraw of the Giants to use the White Sox field for practice Friday any time the club desires.

STATUS OF GREECE AS BELLIGERENT IS VAGUE

Constitution Says King is Only One Who Shall Declare War—Authorities Proceed on War Basis.

Athens, Sept.—The Greek government holds that Greece is at war, but some of the foreign governments, including the United States, are not yet clear on the status of Greece as a belligerent. Officially the Greek authorities are proceeding on a war basis; the army is doing its share of the fighting on the Saloniki front; the navy is chasing Austro-German submarines; all diplomatic relations with Berlin and the other allied capitals have been broken and the ministers recalled. This establishes a de facto condition of war, but whether it is war in the sense defined by international law, is still open to question.

The difference is not only a technical one, but it is of much importance whether a country is, or is not, at war. Foreign governments are obliged to shape their relations to it, as at war, or not at war. Its soldiers and sailors, if taken prisoners by the enemy, are in much different relation if the country is at war, than if it is not at war.

According to the Greek governmental view, the existing Greek regime is at war because it is the regime which Venizelos brought from Saloniki. As Venizelos had formally declared war at Saloniki, this state of war continues now that he has transferred his regime to Athens.

The stumbling-block, however, is that the Greek constitution says the king is the only one who shall declare war. To meet this requirement, King Alexander made a reference to the war in his speech from the throne but the issue still remains as to whether this was a declaration of war, or of a state of war, with all that formality which places Greece among the belligerent nations.

Meantime Greece has brushed aside the technical question by carrying on de facto warfare the same as any of the other fighting nations, and most of the allied governments have recognized her as a belligerent. A law just submitted to the chamber by the Minister of War formally makes Aug. 16, 1916, as the date when Greece began hostilities against the Central powers, which extends the war period back to the days of King Constantine.

DRESSMAKERS' EMPLOYES UNDERFED.

Rome, August — While women's clothes have doubled in price, the wage paid dressmakers' employes still remains about 60 cents a day. The exploitation of women workers in Italy is being discussed in connection with the recent strike of Paris midinettes. Rome's two most fashionable establishments, despite their war prices, continue to pay their sewing girls at this rate, with three months' layoff in summer. As it is impossible for these girls and young women to buy food on such wages, many of them have turned to work as house maids, where at least they get their food.

One of the chief difficulties of working women at present is to get shoes, for which they now have to pay $4 a pair for the quality that before the war cost them $1.

GIANTS CLOSE SEASON WITH TWO VICTORIES

Trounce Philadelphia in Both Games of Double Header by Scores of 11 to 1 and 6 to 0—Recruits Make up Most of Team in Last Game.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—New York wound up its championship season here today by winning two games, the scores being 11 to 1 and 6 to 0.

Schupp pitched for four innings of the first game and did not yield a hit while New York pounded out nineteen hits for a total of 28 bases off Lavender and Fittery. A team made up largely of recruits represented New York in the second game and batted Oeschger's delivery freely for a total of twenty two bases, while Anderson, Tesreau and Kelly were very effective. The New York team left here tonight for Chicago.

APPEALS TO RUSSIAN SOCIALISTS

London, Sept.—H. M. Hyndman, head of the Socialist Labor party in England, who has just addressed a stirring appeal to the Socialists of Russia, is a Cambridge graduate and was a classmate and close friend of the late King Edward. In personal appearance he bears a striking resemblance to the American poet Longfellow. Mr. Hyndman has travelled widely, especially in America and Germany. His pet aversions are golf and whiskey.

H. J. Smith of the south side millinery store attended the funeral of his cousin, Frank Smith at Woodson yesterday.

25 CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR

Save Your Hair! Make it Thick, Wavy and Beautiful—Try It!

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff — that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die — then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time —will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few week's use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair — growing all over the scalp.—Adv.

GERMAN VESSELS TO BE USED IN PHILIPPINES

Ships Seized at Outbreak of War Detailed to Island Service by U. S. Government—Will Relieve Shipping Famine.

Manila, August. — (Correspondence).—Seven German vessels seized in the Philippines at the outbreak of the war, have now been detailed to winter-island service by the United States government.

These vessels are to be used in relieving the shipping famine in the Islands. With increased prosperity due to war demands for Philippine products and the withdrawal of several inter-island vessels for more profitable foreign runs, the shipping situation in the Philippines in the past two years has gradually grown critical. The use of the German steamers will make possible the movement of thousands of tons of products now tied up.

It will not, however, solve the export problems of local producers. Ships calling at Manila and other Philippine ports are scarce, cargo space is difficult to obtain while the freight rates are sky-high. The better grades of sugar, tobacco, cigars, hemp, copra and embroidery, which are commanding high prices in the United States, can pay these rates but other products suffer.

In Iloilo there is still stored 80,000 tons of low grade sugar, worth perhaps three cents a pound on the American market. It will not be accepted as freight for less than that figure as sugar rates to New York are about $65 a ton. Unless the government intervenes an economic catastrophe is feared in the southern sugar districts especially as the new crop will be coming in within two months and storage space must be found for it.

WANT RECRUITS FOR LAND ARMY.

Chicago. Oct. 3 — The National Woman's Farm and Garden Association opened its fourth annual convention in this city today with an attendance embracing hunndreds of women who are actively engaged in the management of their own farms or who are employed as managers of farms, directing the tilling of the soil, the raising of livestock, or other forms of agricultural business.

The original purpose of the association was to encourage women to take up outdoor occupations, and to bring together the rich and the poor in the common love for gardens, to dignify labor and to widen the field for women in home activities. The present convention will formulate plans for the extension of the membership so as to include every woman in America who wishes to fit herself for the land army whose business it will be, to increase the cultivation of grains and vegetables, and to be ready, if needed, to take the place of men on farms.

TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, AND CONSTIPATED

Best for Liver and Bowels, Bad Breath, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter, clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue, it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. — Adv.

TRY IT AND SEE!
Lift your corns or calluses off with fingers! Doesn't hurt a bit!

A noted Cincinnati chemist discovered a new ether compound and called it freezone and it now can be had in tiny bottles as here shown for a few cents from any drug store.

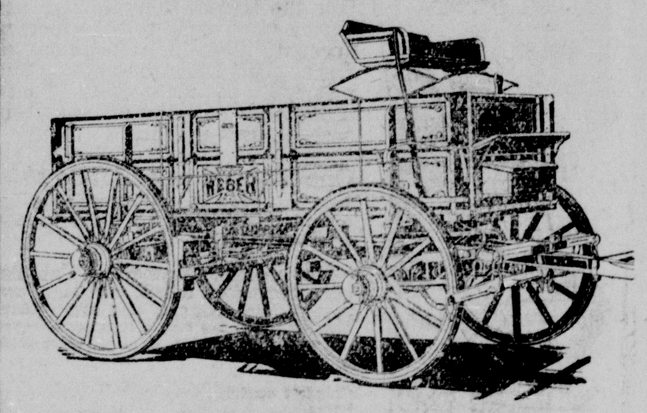

You simply apply a few drops of freezone upon a tender corn or painful callus and instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers.

No pain, not a bit of soreness, either when applying freezone or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also toughened calluses just shrivel up and lift off so easy. It is wonderful! Seems magical. It works like a charm. Genuine freezone has a yellow label. Do not accept any except with the yellow label.—Adv.

IMPORTANT ISSUES IN SWEDISH ELECTION

Question of Universal Suffrage and Foreign Economic Policy of Government to Be Decided — All Parties Favor Neutrality.

Stockholm. Sept. — (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The great political event of this year in Sweden is the general election for the Chamber, which lasts from Sept. 1 to Sept. 21, elections being conducted in deliberate and leisurely fashion in this country. The main issues are the questions of universal suffrage for all citizens over 21 years old, including women, and the foreign economic policy of the government. In the latter respect, the existing government is being attacked by both Liberals and Social Democrats, altho all parties are solid for neutrality.

A significant feature of the three last general elections has been the squeezing out of the Liberal party by the Conservatives and Social Democrats, and probably this will be more marked this year. The best informed newspapers predict slight Socialist gains. The Socialists probably will be the strongest of the three parties in the Chamber, but it is doubtful whether they will be strong enough to form a government. The result is likely to be a coalition of some kind.

Liberals condemn the economic policy of the government on the ground that it has not done its utmost to prevent the exportation of necessities.

The present government's main argument for its continuance is that the presence of M. Branting in a Liberal - Socialist government would be viewed with suspicion in Germany. The present government is not expected to resign even in the face of a considerable adverse showing at the polls, and even a hostile vote in the new Chamber, which meets January 15, might not force resignation, as the Senate will continue heavily Conservative, and a vote of both Houses is required to compel the dismissal of the ministry.

Part of the Socialist platform is the abolition of plural voting which is responsible for the preponderence of Conservatives in the upper House.

Women "Rough It" as Fruit Pickers.

London. Sept. — Five American women, five French women, and ten English women, who volunteered for farm work with the National Land Council, have been sent for a month to "rough it" as fruit pickers in the orchards about twenty miles from London. They live in a barn and work from eight in the morning to six at night. The fruit is all hand-picked from long ladders and the work is not easy.

They get eight cents an hour, the same as regular fruit pickers who come into the fruit district each year from the East End of London and who sleep in freight cars along the sidings.

The big upper floor of their barn dormitory is curtained off into twenty compartments where the girls sleep on straw. They board themselves; each has her own teapot and dishes, and prepares her own breakfast and luncheon. Dinner they have together, assessing themselves fourteen cents each to cover the cost of the material, while one of their number, chosen in turn, is called the 'orderly of the day", and stays in to prepare the dinner, which consists of a stew, suet pudding, bread and syrup or jam.

Their working costumes are of various types, each according to the wearer's fancy. One American girl designed and made for herself, uniform consisting of riding breeches, gaiters, riding coat and a slouch hat. The French girls affect blouses and knickerbockers. One of the Englishwomen has a remarkable head dress picked up years ago in an Italian village.

FIRST CROP CENSUS TAKEN IN PORTO RICO

Shows Small Food Crops to Value of Four Millions Raised By Planters to September 1 — Field Service Re-organized.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept—(Correspondence)—The first crop census ever taken in Porto Rico shows that small food crops valued at $4,000,000 to the planters had been raised up to September 1. The crops included red and white beans, frijoles, gandules (pigeon peas), corn, rice, batatas (sweet potatoes), yautias, yuca and yams.

The large yield of beans has stopped all imports of that vegetable one of the chief items of the Porto Rico diet, and for the first time has permitted the island to export rather than import this food. More than 2,000,000 pounds of beans had been exported up to September. The corn crop also is the largest ever produced and the harvest has been so plentiful as to have reduced the importation of corn and considerably checked the importation of corn meal.

The production of food crops for home consumption is due to a very large degree to the work of the food commission in stimulating interest in the growing of minor crops and impressing on the island the necessity to feed itself. Through the commission fifteen tons of seed for planting have been distributed.

Members of the food commission believe the island is capable of producing possibly four crops a year equal to the crops grown during the past few weeks. It is believed that beans, at least, will grow the year round and that a crop can be planted and brought to maturity inside of six or seven weeks. Vegetables and possibly other grain crops can be planted at every season, it is believed.

The work of the agriculture committee of the food commission has to a large degree been made possible by the assistance of the extension service of the United States department of agriculture, of which H. C. Henricksen is in charge in Porto Rico, and by the employment of a large number of agricultural agents who have been put in charge of specific districts of the island under the supervision of traveling inspectors.

Since September this field service has been re-organized and the work in the future is expected to show even better results than obtained during the first two months and a half of the new work.

IMPORTANT PUBLIC BENEFACTIONS ANNOUNCED

Tokio, Sept. — (Correspondence) Japanese "narikin", or war-millionaires, who have been the targets for considerable criticism from their fellow countrymen, have retorted to their critics by announcing important public benefactions.

A modern Kobe millionaire will establish a nautical school at a cost of $500,000 and the wife of another man, to whom has come great wealth from shipbuilding, will establish a high school for girls at Sumiyoshi in southern Japan. Another shipbuilding millionaire will found a commercial school in another town and an Osaka manufacturer will start a girls' high school in his home city. There are many other projects of a similar nature.

Public criticism has been directed to the "narikin" on the ground of luxurious living calculated to give a bad example and to their extravagant buying of curios and works of art. To this the war millionaires of Osaka and Kobe answer by announcing plans to found an academy of fine arts in Osaka, known as the Manchester of Japan.

WELCOME GIVEN ITALIAN MISSION APPRECIATED

Member of Mission Tells Constituency of Treatment Accorded by Americans—Describes Scenes as Beyond All Belief and Imagination.

Alessandria, Italy. Sept. — (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Warm appreciation of hte welcome given by Americans to the members of the Italian Mission who visited the United States this summer was expressed by Marquis Luigi Borsarelli, Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and member of the mission, in reporting some of the incidents of that visit on his return home. Addressing his constituency, the municipality of Alessandria, the Marquis said:-

"The scenes which we heheld were beyond all belief and all imagining. I could not describe to you the delirious multitudes, the hundreds of thousands of people crowding the streets, and the Italian voices, mingling with those of the Americans and greeting us with acclamations and cheers for Italy. They were our compatriots, our brothers, who cheered the symbols, the name and memory of their distant, but unforgotten, fatherland; it was the American people, mingling with them and greeting the representatives of a friendly people with a welcome worthy of elevated and noble souls.

Flags Were Interwined.

"Hearts could not refrain from emotion, nor eyes from tears, on seeing the flag of the forty-eight stars and the tri-color of Italy intertwined as symbols of a common loyalty of sentiments. We heard orators make great speeches; we heard the distinguished mayors of beautiful cities and other famous men, say such great things about Italy, and utter such words, as shall remain for ever engraved on our memories.

"And these men made clear how just and holy they consider the cause for which both we and they have taken up arms, and how they recognize that, with the success of this cause, are bound up the independence of nations, the liberty of peoples and the triumph of democracy.

"America is contemplating with admiration the brave sons of Italy, and observing how the men, to whom the world was only willing to concede the fame of artists, of singers and of poets, are fighting like lions on the Alps and on the sea. America sees that Italy the frivolous, the light, the inconstant, the incapable of effort, is in reality virile and capable of long-sustained efforts; she sees that Italy is calm as the rocks of her mountains, even amid privations and sufferings. She sees, too, that no form of steadfastness is unknown to her, whether it be that of her Parliament or of her population showing no signs of fatigue or of weakening that might be a source of joy to the enemy.

Longs to Aid Common Cause.

"America's sympathy has become transformed into esteem and friendship, and she longs to bring to the common cause her potent and multifarious help. May their ships sail safely across the ocean.

"Let the men from beyond the seas come to our shores. Let those worthy men come too, who are representatives of American benevoliance and who are getting ready to bring a welcome aid for the Red Cross, and may they be welcome.

"They will find when they come here, a people that is fighting without being discouraged, a people that knows how to endure without showing the impatience of the weak, a people that can suffer without complaining, strong and steady because of the righteousness of its cause, and trusting in the star of its destiny. Such is the real Italy.

ROUMANIA TO FIGHT TO THE LAST

Tokio. Sept. — Members of a Rumanian commission which has arrived in Tokio to purchase medicine and surgicel supplies expressed the conviction that their country though one third occupied by the enemy would fight to the last. A member of the commission said the visitors would study the prospect of devoping trade between Japan and Rumania after the war He added that German goods would henceforth be boycotted in his country.

M. L. R. Opreanu, one of the commissioners, said there are more than ten Japanese army officers along with British and French, on the Roumanian general staff and with the artillery corps.

Because of the war's heavy draft on the medical profession and male medical students for the army, Harvard University this year may open the doors of its medical school to women for the first time in it history.

How Long Must I Suffer From the Pangs of Rheumatism?

Is there no real relief in sight?

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered.

Science has proven that your Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons from your blood. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs which infest your blood by the millions.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. You can get valuable advice about the treatment of your individual case by writing to the Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. D Atlanta, Ga.

Iron Is Greatest of All Strength Builder, Says Doctor

A Secret of the Great Endurance and Powers of Athletes

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate, Nervous, Rundown People 100 Per Cent Stronger In Two Weeks' Time in Many Cases.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. E. Sauer, a Boston physician who has studied widely both in this country and Great European Medical Institutions when, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened nervous condition they know something is wrong but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five grain tablets or ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prize fighter has won the day simply because they knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. E. Sauer, is one of the newest organic iron compounds. Unlike the older inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The Manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 100 per cent or over in four weeks' time provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Obermeyer & Son, Lully-Davis Drug Co., Armstrong & Armstrong, Gilbert's Pharmacy and all other druggists.

RED CROSS LADY

Major General Leonard Wood's Wife Is Also Busy.

MOTHER OF TWO BOYS.

Made a Reputation as a Hostess When Her Husband Was Military Governor of Cuba, and Is Now Enthusiastic About Red Cross Work.

Mrs. Wood's position in Cuba when the general was military governor of the island was unique, and her opportunity to observe conditions and to study the character of the Cubans as individuals a rare one. Here is what she once said about the Cubans:

"They are a very good sort of people indeed, only in the United States they are not understood. Among the educated are as charming men and women as one would meet anywhere. And their feeling toward the United States is extremely friendly. Indeed, it is more than that, because there is a sincere gratitude at the bottom of it. But how can they feel otherwise after all that our government has done for them?"

It is easy to believe the testimony of travelers that Mrs. Wood was a thoroughly tactful hostess in her Santiago home. Above all, she is a devoted admirer of her husband.

Mrs. Wood's personality is all her own, while her social adaptability is doubtless partly due to her training as a girl in the social life of Washington's diplomatic circles.

Mrs. Wood has many points of personal attraction. She is tall, with a strongly built figure that suggests athletic tastes; her face in repose is keenly intelligent and when she smiles is most attractive; she has good, honest gray eyes and plenty of soft, reddish brown hair.

It is probably because of Mrs. Wood's force, determination and executive capacity that the report of her being an accomplished medical student arose in Cuba. She declares, however, that she has had no medical training, is not a college woman and has never considered a profession of any sort.

In the cut Mrs. Wood wears a sterilized gown, worn as she made bandages for the New York division of the Red Cross.

To Keep Liquids.

Grape juice, ginger ale, fruit juice or any kind of liquid of like nature may be kept for any period if laid upon its side or placed bottom up. Thus if the liquid covers the cork, the moisture will keep the cork expanded and there will be no room for the air to find its way in and ruin it.

To remove stains from earthenware dishes and plates caused by putting them in the oven, soak in strong borax and hot water.

To ship a mirror without breaking the glass, paste narrow strips of paper diagonally across the glass. This breaks the vibration and prevents the damage that often results.

When weighing molasses for cooking purposes, flour the scale well and the molasses will run off quite easily.

Mock Pin Tucks.

For use on children's clothes, lingerie or fine blouses a good imitation of pin tucking may be obtained by machine stitching. It is necessary to use about a No. 8 thread in the bobbin and as fine a thread as 100 in the needle. Stitch the material on the wrong side, letting the coarse thread come on the right. It is this coarse thread which looks like the pin tuck, and it is ever so much easier to do. It might be a good idea to loosen the bobbin screw very slightly in doing this work.

Spanish Macaroni.

A meat substitute. Fry onions in a bit of butter and olive oil until brown; add a tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce and a tablespoonful of chili powder. Put a half cupful of macaroni into boiling water, salted, and cook until tender, about twenty-five minutes. Place the drained macaroni in a buttered baking dish and pour the onions and half a can of tomatoes over it. Mix well and sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake a half hour in a moderate oven.

MANY AMERICANS AT WORK IN FRANCE

The American Army, Flying Squadron, Red Cross Y. M. C. A. and Ambulance Corps All Either Engaged in Military Operations or Preparing for Them—Congressman McCormick Visits Front.

(Representative McCormick of Illinois is now in Europe, at the invitation of the British and French governments, studying the war situation. He is accompanied by his secretary, Elisha Hanson, for a number of years a well known Washington Newspaper correspondent.)

Paris Sept. 20—Americans are hard at work in France. First of all, the American Army is learning the art of modern warfare in a camp more than a hundred miles from Paris; the American Flying Squadron, to which the Lafayette Escadrille recently was added, is preparing for the war against Germany; the American Red Cross; the American Y. M. C. A. and the American ambulance Corps, as well as hundreds of American women, are all at work, either actively engaged in military operations or preparation for military operations.

France is wild over the Americans and it is needless to say that the Americans are wild over France. Seldom, if ever before has there been such an entente cordiale as that which exists between the American and French staffs; the American and French relief organizations.

Troops Made Fine Impression.

There are not so many American troops in France as the people in the States imagine. But what troops are here have made a fine impression. Man for man they are larger, stronger, and more intelligent than any body of soldiers engaged in the war.

When the Americans arrived, they were assigned to a camp which stretches along a beautiful countryside, through a number of French villages, where the soldiers are quartered in the homes of the French peasants. The very finest division of French Alpine Chasseurs, the famous "blue devils" of the Battle of the Marne and the particular pride of Marshal Joffre, was delegated to instruct the Americans in trench warfare. Within a few weeks after they took up the work of instructing the Americans, the Chasseurs pronounced the "Sammies" ready for the front or to instruct new units of troops from the United States. It is this latter work which will be done in all probability before the Americans go to the front, tho every man of them is restless under present restraint and wants to get a whack at "Fritz" as the Germans are referred to collectively.

Drill Was Real Work.

Several days ago, Representative Medill McCormick of Illinois, the first American congressman to visit the front since the United States entered the war in April last, went down to the American camp accompanied by a personal aide of General Pershing. General Sibert, in charge of the men at the camp, put them through a trench drill. The Alpine Chasseurs stood by and cheered as the Americans first stormed a trench and then "mopped" it out. The drill was not play. It was real work. Live grenades were used both on the assault and in the mopping and for a half hour or more the hills reverberated just as though a great battle were taking place.

After the sham battle was over, a young captain said: "Gosh, if we could only get at those Germans, we'd clean them out in a hurry."

Every American soldier feels that way and so does every French and British officer who has seen the American soldiers at work.

The Americans are having a great time. When they came over they consisted of about one half regulars and one half Rookies.

Today, as General Sibert says, there are no longer rookies. They are all regulars.

Congressman McCormick discovered that the American soldier, with whom he has been in close contact in the Philippines, at Vera Cruz, and at army posts, was never happier than he is in France. He enjoys his work; he enjoys his play; he enjoys his quarters; and he enjoys everything but a lack of chewing gum and tobacco.

Trunks Full of Chewing Gum.

"Sammy" certainly loves chewing gum and tobacco and he gets mighty little of either now. The congressman took over with him several trunk loads of "Spearmint", which were distributed to the soldiers.

When at work, "Sammy" works hard. As a result, he is looking fine. But it is not all work; for every afternoon there are field sports, baseball, fishing, swimming or games. And while the Americans play, their comrades in arms, the "blue devils" of France, look on with the greatest of amazement and amusement.

Officers and men are on the friendliest terms and there is much friendly rivalry between bith company and regimental commanders over the merits of their respective outfits. Possibly one of the most popular men in the army at the present time is a young captain who has risen from the ranks. His men will fight for him not only against the Bosches but against any one who dares say he isn't the greatest captain in the world. When the order went out for men to have their hair chopped close, for sanitary purposes and for safety in training, he was the first in the barber's chair. When the order goes out for his company to storm a trench, he is the first into it. Every man in his company has wagered he will be the first American across the German line.

Only One Man Injured.

This storming trenches is not at all play but really serious business. Yet so far only one man has been dangerously hurt and he was injured because his curiosity got away with him to such an extent that he used an ax to find what was inside a grenade that had not exploded.

The Red Cross, under the direction of Major Grayson M. P. Murphy a retired army oficer, is coordinating all relief work. As a side issue the Red Cross will have charge of the Army Motion Pictures to be displayed in the States. Paul J. Rainey, the noted African and Arctic picture man, is supervising the taking of the movies.

Among the Y. M. C. A. workers is Francis Bowles Sayre, son-in-law of President Wilson. Young Sayre has charge of a hut back of the American headquarters, where he is an object of much interest to the soldiers.

Foresters and Engineers Busy.

American foresters and American engineers are busy all over France. The foresters are supervising the cutting of trees and the planting of new forests. The engineers, among other things, are working on the construction of new railroads and the rehabilitation of existing systems.

One can not go in any part of France these days without running into Americans or feeling their presence. Their spirit permeates the air.

Officials of the French government were delighted to hear of the arrival of Congressman McCormick in France. During the first few days of his visit he was received by M. Ribot, the premier, by M. Painleve, the minister of war, and other officials. Mr. McCormick has been invited to visit the French front under personal guidance of Gen. Petain, commander in chief of all the allied forces.

Representative Jeanette Rankin, Montana, is to speak on suffrage and labor problems at a mass meeting to be held in Madison Square Garden on Sept. 27.

CORN WIELD FALLS SHORT OF ESTIMATES

Will Drop Over Sixty Million Bushels Shot of Total Suggested By Government.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Estimates that the 1917 yield of corn altho larger than the average crop, would be sixty million bushels to sixty six million bushels short of the total suggested by the government report a month ago put strengti today into the corn market. Prices closed firm, ⅝c to ¾c net higher at $1.20 December and $1.16¾ May. Oats gained ⅝c to 1¼c. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 40 cents lower.
The advance in corn came after a brief interval of weakness which developed the early trading and which was impatted to favorable weather and to virtual certainty that an ample supply of sound commercial quality had now been assured. When the upward movement of prices got well started, however, buying increase, and the market showed notable strength toward the end of th esession. Current bullish crop estimates altho unofficial carried prestige as coming from two of the best-known private experts.
Big withdrawals of oats from store here tended to inspire confidence in the bull side of the oats market.
Unloading by some of the most active of recent buyers pulled down provisions. Packers gave the market some support, but otherwise orders to purchase were scarce.

STOCK MARKET HAS DAY OF DULLNESS

Trading Falls off Sharply Until Final Hour When Heavy Selling of War Stocks Causes an Unsettled Close.

New York, Oct. 3.—Dullness was the chief characteristic of today's stock market trading falling off sharply until the final hour, when heavy selling of industrials, especially war stocks, caused an unsettled close. The issues most affected during this further period of liquidation included Bethlehem Steel new stock.
All classes of industrials yielded to the sudden pressure upon Bethlehem Steel as well as coppers and numerous equipments were carried down by the late decline ending at losses of one to three points.
If the early stages of the session rails rails continued their course of recent days.
Utilities, motors, oils and various miscellaneous shares moved within narrow limits until the belated liquidation elsewhere induced a renewal of short selling in those groups.
The money market gave promise of further ease. Short time loans delaxed slightly.
Bonds were irregular on limited offerings, the liberty 3½ holding at 99.90@99.98. U. S. Bonds (old issues) were unchanged on call. The coupon 4s declined ⅛ per cent on sales.

SPECULATORS GAMBLE ON BURIED TREASURE

Professional Money Lenders in London Have New Species of Business —Many Belgian Refugees Buried Wealth Before Fleeing for Safety.

London, Oct. 3.—To be possessed of property worth thousands of dollars, if only one had it handy, and to be at the same time doubtful whether there will be sufficient money in hand for the next day's lodging and food, is a painful predicament.

There are hundreds of persons so placed in London and Paris today. They are refugees—persons who, before the first overwhelming rush of the Germans, sweeping all before it, hastily buried their treasures in hiding places and fled to safety.

During the past three years the professional money lenders in London and Paris have been well nigh distracted by the new species of business proposed to them—the making of advances on or the buying outright of hidden gold and silver or jewels, the most treasured possessions of their owners, now lying concealed in places where the owners have no chance of getting at them.

It is an immensely speculative business, one of the risks of which might well deter any but the most venturesome souls taking any part in it. But the profits, if the story of the treasure-owner turns out correct, and if the Germans have not discovered the treasure before hand, will be enormous.

One of First Peace Results

One of the first results of peace will be the setting out to Belgium and to the now occupied parts of France of hundreds of little mysterious parties to search for the buried treasure. Syndicates of adventurous men and women have been formed here to deal in these hidden fortunes. The question is, will they be found in the places indicated on the maps and described by the concealers? If they are, many dealers in gold and silver, many snappers-up of rare gems, will reap a wonderful harvest.

Many of the buried treasures undoubtedly have long since been found and confiscated by the invaders. With his marvelously perfected system of spies in every town and village the German had, before the war was declared, made himself well acquainted with the contents of the various chateaux and houses of the wealthy folk along the path he had marked out for himself. The possibility that the most costly of the possessions they contained would be hidden when the owners found themselves obliged to fly entered his cunning brain. They could not be carried away. Where were they?

The German invader, keen on the scent of spoil, set himself to work to solve the mystery. In the wake of his army there traveled another little army of detectives—men from the central bureau in Berlin and others from the big police centers scattered throughout the empire.

Threatened With Death

The duty of these sleuthhounds has been—with the aid of the spies who furnished them with information—to scent out the folk most likely to have been in the confidence of the owners of treasure that had disappeared, to interrogate them, to threaten, and, if needs be, to torture them by placing them in foul cells and keeping them short of food till they have become willing to reveal such knowledge as they possess. The servant whom the spy has pointed out as one most likely to know the whereabouts of his or her master's hidden hoard has been threatened with death unless he or she betrayed.

Some of these unfortunate ones — the servants of once-wealthy persons in Belgium—who have escaped and found their way to London, have had harrowing tales to tell of the terrible days they passed while in the hands of the German secret-extractor; days passed in the very shadow of death, with the prospect of being shot the next morning unless they spoke.

But there are many speculators in London who are willing to gamble on the chance that the Germans have not discovered this or that buried treasure. These speculators are shrewd persons whom it is hard to deceive. Many have tried it with fake stories. But if the speculator is satisfied that the customer has told him the substantial truth and has buried treasure where they state, he is willing to take a chance by advancing money or buying the valuables outright.

MORGAN COUNTY MAN CALLS ARMY LIFE GRAND

Arthur M. Abernathy Writes Enthusiastically of Life at Camp Taylor —Says Officers are Splendid Men —Will Serve in Ambulance Corps.

Arthur M. Abernathy, who was one of the Morgan county men to leave recently for Camp Taylor, Ky., has written the following letter to Rev. C. G. Cantrell of Concord. Mr. Abernathy is firmly convinced that army service will have a desirable effect on the men, both physically and morally, and says had he known before what it was like he would have been in the service long ago. His letter follows:

Rev. C. G. Cantrell,
Concord, Ill.

Dear Pastor:

Will relate to you a few details of army life, and regarding our trip to Louisville, for I know you will be pleased to know how the boys are liking their new life.

We arrived at East St. Louis about 12 o'clock, where we had a midnight lunch, then took the L. & N. to Louisville, where we arrived about 10 a. m. We were a tired and tough looking bunch, as we had no sleep nor breakfast. By the time we got to camp and straightened up in our barracks it was nearly 2 o'clock, so you see it was dinner instead of breakfast. But after dinner and a good shower bath, I believe we could have "canned" the kaiser if he had been here for we are a jolly bunch.

We are not permanently established in our barracks yet, as they are going to move us soon. All the boys seem to like army life fine except a few and they don't say much. I don't see how any one could get homesick down here. For my part, I think army life is a grand thing, for it will undoubtedly make a man better both physically and morally, as nothing else could.

Had I known before what it was like I would have been here long ago. We have drilling every day, exercise every morning before mess, which is at 6 o'clock. When bugle call sounds at 5:30 we get up, dress, make our beds, take a bath and get ready for exercise which is at 5:45. We were all vaccinated Monday. It made several of the boys sick, but they are feeling first-rate now.

All our officers are splendid men. We were measured for our uniforms today, so I guess we will get them soon.

Wallace Carter and I had to do a little guard duty the first night we were here over some supplies. The Y. M. C. A., as you will see by the map I am sending you of Camp Taylor, is in all parts of the camp. They are a fine thing for the soldier. Camp Taylor is a city of itself, as we have 26,000 here. Three thousand acres of ground are used for the camp. We have no fighting to do. We only take care of the wounded.

Trusting that what I have written will interest you, I remain your sincere friend,

TO THOSE WHO HAVE THOUGHT OF BUYING A CHALMERS CAR

An arrangement has been effected whereby the Maxwell Motor Company has leased for a period of five years the properties of the Chalmers Motor Company.

The immediate effect of this transaction is:

1. The Chalmers car will be continued under the Chalmers name for a period of five years.
2. Those distributors or dealers who have been successfully marketing the Chalmers car will continue to do so.

The appraisers of the property and their engineers report the current Chalmers model a good car and the Chalmers plant a wonderful factory.

The first move we have made is to increase the efficiency of the Chalmers organization.

The second move was to place behind the Chalmers car the resources of the Maxwell Motor Company.

This is a business transaction between two automobile companies of probably no more than ordinary interest to the public but important to you if you have thought of buying a Chalmers for these obvious reasons:

1. You obtain a good car.
2. You obtain a car produced in a magnificently equipped plant.
3. You obtain a car produced by an organization materially strengthened by the addition of able executives.
4. You obtain a car produced by an organization materially strengthened by additional financial resources.
5. You obtain a car from a distributor or dealer who will have the support of this organization.

In this way all three of us prosper in the transaction.

REV. JOE R. HANLEY, L. L. D.

The Rev. Joe R. Hanley, L. L. D., who is the leader in the revival campaign which is to begin in this city Sunday night is a man of marked ability. He was born in Iowa and graduated from the state university, after entering the law department from which he graduated with the degree of L. L. B. On leaving law school he entered his father's office and practiced his profession with great success serving as assistant state's attorney in his state.

At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war he was among the first to volunteer and served as a private under General Fitzhugh Lee. When the call was made for men for service in the Philippines, Dr. Hanley responded and by reason of his ability was placed on the staff of the commanding general. While in this service he was twice wounded and received from the national government a medal for distinguished service on the field of battle.

Some years ago he felt the call to preach the gospel and he gave up his law practice and military career to enter the ministry. For five or six years he was in the regular pastorate but during recent years has been actively engaged in the work of an evangelist in which he has had unusual success.

His experience at the bar and as a soldier has especially fitted him for dealing with folks. Dr. Hanley speaks forcibly, thinks clearly, presenting the truths of the gospel in such a popular manner that those who have little interest in spiritual things are drawn to his services and their intent is quickened.

Dr. Hanley is one of the most popular lecturers on the Chautauqua platform, the Redpath Bureau having tried to secure his entire time for platform work. While he gives some time to chautauqua work it is as an evangelist that Dr. Hanley has done his best service. Rev. E. L. Pletcher, district superintendent of the Jacksonville district says "the work Dr. Hanley does as an evangelist is especially deep and abiding. He knows how to deal with men and how to arouse an interest in the work of the church and after his meetings have closed those churches which have co-operated with him are greatly strengthened and built up."

The Aylmer Express of Ontario, Canada, speaking of his work in that city says:

"No man who has ever visited our city has done us so much good as Rev. J. R. Hanley. There never was a man who told the truths of the gospel with more force and plainness. There never was a man who put the matter of religion on a higher plane, appealing to the intellect rather than sentimentality. There never was a man who night after night drew and held such vast audiences."

The Hanley-Fisher party comes to this city from Glenwood, Minn., where they have held a meeting of great power. During the five weeks the revival is intended to continue no one who wishes to have their hope strengthened and led into the higher and better things of life should fail to hear Dr. Hanley in the services to be held at Grace church.

MISS SUSAN BROWN WEDS NAVY MAN FROM SOUTH

Jacksonville Young Woman Married to J. Gilmer Koerner of Winston-Salem—A Pretty Home Ceremony.

With only a limited number of relatives present to witness the service, Miss Susan Leonard Brown Wednesday became the bride of Mr. J. Gilmer Koerner of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Frederick S. Hayden at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown, 138 Sandusky street. The very few guests were received informally by Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their daughter and at the hour mentioned the bride and groom to be, stood before the minister for the impressive ring service. The ceremony was said in the front parlor which was beautified with a profusion of white asters. In the music room adjoining, yellow chrysanthemums were used with artistic effect. Refreshments were served to the company following the ceremony.

The bride wore a traveling suit and her corsage bouquet was of orchids. Mrs. Brown carried pink rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Koerner left on the 4 o'clock Chicago & Alton train for St. Louis and are now en route to their new home at Winston-Salem.

The bride, who, as mentioned above, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown, was a student at Illinois college and subsequently studied in Boston for three years. Later she was at the head of the voice department at Salem college and it was while there that the friendship with Mr. Koerner began. After leaving Salem college Mrs. Koerner studied in New York city. Inherited musical ability was developed by thoro training with the most competent artists and this October bride thus came to rank as one of the most talented musicians that Jacksonville has known. Her voice has added to the success of numerous voice programs and she excels also as a pianist. Aside from her musical work Mrs. Koerner found some time for social activities and has been very popular with Jacksonville young people.

Mr. Koerner graduated from Trinity college and then took his law course at Harvard. Subsequently he began practice at Winston-Salem and in his few years at the bar has already made an excellent record. Some months ago he enlisted with the mosquito fleet of the U. S. navy in Rhode Island. When the plan for this fleet was abandoned his name was transferred to the enlistments for the submarine destroyer department of the navy. He is therefore expecting a call to service at any time, altho he is wholly uncertain just when this department of the navy's war activities will be pushed. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gilmer Koerner of Koernersville, N. C., and the family is one of the oldest in that long settled community.

The marriage ceremony as already indicated, was marked by a simplicity which made it the more impressive and thoroly in accord with the spirit of the times.

GET-TOGETHER MEETING AT CENTENARY CHURCH

Service Held Last Night for Purpose of Bringing into Close Touch All Those Interested in Coming Revival Series—Ministers Made Addresses.

Last evening at Centenary church there was a get together meeting which was well attended. It was for the purpose of bringing into close touch all interested especially in the coming revival meetings. The particular committee in charge consisted of C. O. Bayha, J. N. Deatherage and Fred Darr. The forces gathered first in the basement of the church and enjoyed a good supper provided by the Ladies Aid society, Mrs. Buckthorpe, president, and a fine time socially was had by all.

C. O. Bayha, chairman of the committee on arrangements, called for order at the close of the serving and asked the laymen present for an expression relative to the coming revival. C. E. Williamson, J. Marshall Miller, Mayor H. J. Rodgers, Dr. C. C. Cochran, T. M. Tomlinson and E. G. Saye were called on by Mr. Bayha and it was the belief of each speaker that the results of the meetings would be just what the members of the churches co-operating in the campaign should make them.

Auditorium Well Filled

The meeting adjourned to the main auditorium which was well filled. Rev. Dr. Emett presided. He called for a testimonial meeting to which a large number responded with scriptural quotations.

The Rev. E. L. Pletcher, district superintendent of the Jacksonville district was first introduced and he used as the basis of his remarks the statement made by Jesus when He said to His own people that they knew not the day of His visitation. He emphasized the thought that Jesus has often come to Jacksonville seeking to touch and bless the lives of men and women and that we should see to it that his coming should not be in vain.

The Rev. R. B. Wilson, pastor of State Street church, was next introduced and asked that there should be a personal introspection so that the proper balance should be maintained in the coming revival services. It was an earnest plea for each person to occupy the proper place with regard to the work to be done in bringing those to a knowledge of Christ.

Rev. E. K. Towle in Strong Appeal

The Rev. E. K. Towle was present and introduced by Dr. Emett as the last speaker. His address was timely and marked by a frankness that was invigorating. He expressed it as his sincere conviction that the church membership of Jacksonville as he had known it was marked by a self-complacency and satisfaction that could be disturbed only by a genuine revival of religion. His address was an appeal for preparing for service before the service was attempted.

SOUTH JACKSONVILLE BOARD HELD MEETING

Village Board Transacted Routine Business Wednesday Evening—Guy Coultas Appointed Fireman to Fill Vacancy—Improvement Board Met Following Adjournment of Board Meeting.

Little aside from routine business was transacted at the regular monthly meeting of the village board of South Jacksonville Wednesday evening.

All members were present with President Berryman presiding and E. E. Beastall clerk. The minutes of the last regular session were read and approved as read. All properly approved claims were ordered paid.

President Berryman appointed Guy Coultas as fireman. There has been a vacancy in the board caused by the removal from the village of H. A. Brewer. Mr. Brewer was chief of the company. The members of the department, who number six men, will meet soon and select one of their number as chief.

Local Improvement Board Met.

Immediately following adjournment of the village board President Berryman called a meeting of the recently created board of local improvements. This board was created in accordance with the ordinance passed at the last regular meeting and the board of local improvements is composed of the entire membership of the village board.

M. C. Coulson, vice president of the Caldwell Engineering company, was present to answer any questions from the board in connection with the proposed sewer system. There was a general discussion and while no definite action was taken the board felt that some progress was made.

Among other things the matter of employing an attorney to advise the board was discussed. President Berryman referred the matter of employing an attorney to the sewer committee. The outlining of the proposed route of the sewer system also was referred to this committee. It is probable that some definite plan will be presented at the next meeting of the board.

MURRAYVILLE MAN TELLS OF TRAINING CAMP LIFE

Russell M. Miller Writes Friend from Camp Taylor, Ky.—Many Buildings Still in Course of Construction—Y. M. C. A. Comforts Appreciated.

Edgar Sorrells of Murrayville has received a letter from his friend, Russell M. Miller, now in training at Camp Taylor, Ky. Young Miller was among the Morgan county men recently sent to the southern training camp, and expresses satisfaction with the work and surroundings. The letter follows:

Saturday, Sept. 29, 1917.

Mr. Ed Sorrels,
Murrayville, Ill.

Dear Friend:

I will write you a few lines as I promised. Arrived here about 10 o'clock Sunday morning. I like Camp Taylor fine; have lots of training to do though. I will give you an outline of one day's work. Get up at 5:30, take morning exercise till 6, eat breakfast, wash our dishes, line up for a hike to the country, get back about 10, take a bath and rest till dinner. After dinner we have about three hours' drill, then rest until retreat when the flag is lowered; then a rush for supper. After supper we are off until 9 o'clock.

This camp is laid out in blocks like an up to date city. The barracks are long, wide, two story buildings. They are still building every direction you look. During the day all you can hear is the hammers of the carpenters, the commanding tones of the officers, and now and then some band practicing. We have nice places to spend our spare time here in the Y. M. C. A.s. There are three close to my barracks. They are large and have speaking, singing, meetings, moving pictures and sometimes boxing matches between the soldiers. They have nice writing rooms for the boys. All the "Y" buildings are painted green so the greenies can find them.

I was measured the other day for my clothes. Took the examination Monday and passed easily. Not so severe as the one at Jacksonville. All of us Morgan county boys were left in the same company. Our boys are all well.

You ought to have seen us the other day. Some one got a Jacksonville Journal and William Eads got up on a table and read it to the company. We then cut the picture out and tacked it up on the door.

We belong to an ambulance company, therefore are not compelled to carry any arms except a Colt's .45 and a short sword. We have some nice officers, Capt. Cline and First Sergeants Miers, Woods, Allen and others.

I see they have made another draft or rather someone wrote and told me they had. Said Claude Bolton and Herschell Hicks were in it. If you see them before they come tell them to bring colored shirts, light underwear and plenty of face and bath towels and plenty of socks.

The days are warm down here but we have cool nights. We use both of our blankets some nights. If you ever come down here you will find me in unit 10, Ambulance Co. 4.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain,

Russell N. Miller.

Kodak In Camp

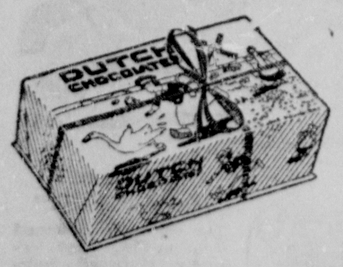

From reveille to taps, each hour will bring something new into the life of every young soldier. New surroundings, new habits, new faces, and new friendships will make for him a new world — a world full of interest to him today and a world upon which he will often dwell in memory when peace has come again.

And this new world of his offers Kodak opportunities that will relieve the tedium of camp routine at the time and will afterward provide what will be to him and his friends the most interest of all books—his Kodak album.

The parting gift, a Kodak. Let us show you.
